

RENTALS

Check your order carefully upon arrival.

We prepare your rental with hanger tags to identify each character's outfit for ease of distribution to your actors, hemmed and dressed. For rentals we ask for at least two days or more plus shipping time. Any rental request that requires immediate shipping (same day) will not be hemmed to size or dressed in our usual manner. Remember, the more time you give us allows us to serve you better. So please order early.

Rentals are priced as outfits as pictured. Belts, braids and braided epaulettes, are available upon request & may add an additional charge. Hats and outerwear are rented separately. Props, guns, badges, canes, and such are not for sale or rental.

The rental term is specified on the paperwork sent with the order. If a return for credit is required the item/s must be postmarked no later than the opening night performance date or first week rental charges will apply.

Normal wear and tear is expected on rented garments. Should garments be damaged or permanently altered, they will be returned to you along with a billing at the replacement price. This includes, but is not limited to, iron damage, any type of glue (including iron in hem tape or stitch witchery), tears, holes, burns, seam adjustments or cutting off garment for convenient hemming. We do not require rental garments to be returned clean, but be aware of heavy makeup stains in garments such as shirts.

Rentals are based on a sliding scale

Week 1: published price

Week 2: one half published price

Week 3: one quarter published price per week

Week 4 and beyond: one quarter published price
